Bringing music, colour and joy to the elderly and vulnerable in the community

Let's have some fun!

We are proud of our reputation of providing excellent entertainment for the community, particularly the senior citizens we regularly dance for in local care homes and social clubs. Satisfied customers comment on our charm, warmth and friendliness.

Here is a pictorial souvenir of our gigs over the last few years which will give you a taste of what we do and show you the positive reaction of our audiences.

We have visited Chegworth Residential Home in Cheam several times and every time residents and staff alike have shown their enjoyment and appreciation.

This photo appeared in the local Guardian after we saw in the New Year 2010 with everyone at Greenacres in Banstead. We have also danced at Ridgemount in their various lounges and at their Summer Fair.

Kathi chats to a resident at Trinity Court Care Home in Tooting following a presentation.

We were a hit at Walton Heath Residential Home, Tadworth. Who says pink is for girls?

A Turkish themed event at Shenehom Housing Association in Barnes.

Some new recruits at Servite in Worcester Park!

Sutton Court Care Home, Sutton – for the last two years we have animated the residents' lounge at Christmas time.

'All I want for Christmas is you' is a popular dance that always has a few spritely residents up and dancing with us.

The line up for the Wells Centre Summer Party, Epsom

One comment from a relative at Sutton Court's Xmas party: 'This is the first time in years I've seen my mother smile – thank you!'

We have danced at the Alzheimer's Tuesday Club (Mid-Surrey & Dorking branch) in Banstead, a charity close to our heart, several times over the past few years. For Christmas 2011 we enlisted the help of Santa to bring some seasonal joy to the occasion.

Kathi and Bernadette (above) entertain some gentlemen who clearly love to dance and know how to party!

Jill (right) brings her parents onto the dance floor for some boogying.

Amongst other venues, a small group of Shimmies has danced several times at Leighton House Care Home in Epsom and animated a Turkish-themed afternoon tea at Sunrise in Banstead.

At the Memory Lane Café in Cheam they have asked for several repeat performances over the last couple of years. We will be going back again this spring.

The Shimmy Sisters are now regulars at the Sunday Club in Ewell Village, organised by Age UK. Above, Becky and Kathi pose with one of the ladies who is particularly fond of the 'pink ladies' who dance.

We do hope that this pamphlet will encourage you to consider booking The Shimmy Sisters to entertain your residents or members, either for a specific event (eg Easter/Christmas party, milestone birthday, summer BBQ) or to bring some music, colour and joy to their sitting room or meeting as a special treat.
